Report on Overseas Americans Week, May 8 – 12

Meet the AARO Delegation returning from their advocacy trip to Washington, D.C. This year’s Overseas Americans Week, the first since Covid, was informative and productive, involving more than 50 meetings with officials in the House and Senate, government agencies and institutions. The AARO Delegation, led by Fred Einbinder, AARO Vice President and Chair of the Advocacy Committee, will provide key takeaways and take questions.
